

WESTWOOD MEDICAL NEWSLETTER WELCOME SUMMER 2026

JUNE 19TH

Honoring
Juneteenth
EMANCIPATION DAY

“The people of Texas are informed that, in accordance with a proclamation from the Executive of the United States, all slaves are free. This involves an absolute equality of personal rights and rights of property between former masters and slaves, and the connection heretofore existing between them becomes that between employer and hired labor”

—General Orders, Number 3
Headquarters District of Texas, Galveston, June 19, 1865

Sunday June 21st
